The Wood-Gas Controversy. RATHER sharp but distant firing carried on by some persons interested in d-Gas Patents; and we perceive that the smoke of their cannon has somewhat obscure their vision. Dr. C. G. Page, as the attorney for W. P. McConnell, having presented his claims through our columns, L. R. Breisach, of this city, has presented those of Pettenkofer & Ruland, or Bavaria—he being their assignee—through the columns of the Daily Times of the 3d instant. He states that the first potent for the Bavarian inven-tion was issued on February 24, 1851, an authen-ticated copy of which has been filed in our Patent Office; also, that the claims of his assignors were filed in the office, to protect their rights, more than a year ago. As no patent can be obtained for making or using Wood-Gas, the disputed point relates to the apparatus, which embraces the reheating of the gas—passing it over a red-hot surface in its way to the cooler—after it is generated; this is clearly stated in Dr. Page's letter on page 50. Now, as McConnell claims to have invented the apparatus for reheating Wood-Gas as far back as 1849—two years previous to the as far back as 1042—two years previous to the granting of the Bavarian patent—and as he obtained a patent for the same, on the 26th day of September last, although contested by Pettenko fer & Ruland, we cannot well conceive who L. R. Breisach wants to frighten, by declaring, through the columns of the Times, that he will prosecute the violators of the Bavarian invention. He gives this notice to all who take an interest in the int duction of this invention, but, in doing so, he for-got to present any fact upon which the public can rely, to show what patent rights he possesses. When he again writes to inform the public that he has certain patent rights, and will prosecute these who infringe them, we hope he will be so good as to state what these rights are, so that the public may know what he means.—Scientific American. PROSPECTUS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA STATESMAN. THE undersigned propose, on the first day of January next, at Raleigh, North Carolina, to begin the publication of the North Carolina Statesman, a semi-weekly and weekly paper, devoted to politics, news, and miscellaneous subjects, and respectfully solicit for it a share of the patronage of the damageratic party, their friends, and the mocratic party, their friends, and the Invited by many leading persons of the State rights republican party to propagate and defend principles which we have always held, and regard rights republican party to propagate and delend principles which we have a laways held, and regard as the only basis of prosperity in our form of government, and inspired with a sincere desire to serve that party and advance its interests, we propose to issue a paper at the seat of the State government. In the field of editorial enterprise, there is ample room for those who are now holding position, as well as for others, who choose to enter into fair competition. The propagation of the principles of our party is a duty at once important, and to us peculiarly agreeable. The attractions of the editorial profession and its honorable toils, together with a desire to extend its influence, has had much weight in the decision which we have made—a profession at once dignified and elevated, where the highest intellectual gifts may find full employment, and the purest patriotism make contribution to the public weal. We are persunded that a journal, conducted with fairness and discretion—uninfluenced by selfishness and devoted to principle, may secure sufficient patronage, without interfering with the claims or rights of any now presecuting the same great work

The general objects of the proposed paper being thus clearly indicated, it may not be amiss briefly thus clearly indicated, it may not be amiss brieny to state the particular views which are to be sustained by it as a political journal.

1st. Our purpose being to publish a paper purely democratic, according to the straightest requirements of that party, we shall advocate strict party organization in its fullest and most comprehensive sense; an organization which originates in the popular will expressed by the people in their primary aswill, expressed by the people in their prima semblies, and which has been so successfu semblies, and which has been so successfully in-troduced among the democracy of many of the ether States, by which the rank and file of the party are, in fact, those who indicate its decisions, and, being all brought into action, express their will imperatively; thus, by open and fair dealing, commanding respect and obedience; an organiza-tion of the people, and not of intriguers; restoring power to those whe, by sufferance, have tolerated its temporary usurpation.

power to those whe, by sufferance, have tolerated its temporary usurpation.

2d. The democratic party shall always find in us advocates of their right to select their standard bearers, and to command acquiescence in decisions made by conventions fairly elected in their primary meetings. Standing upon the good eld State rights platform of '95, we shall oppose government corporations created by Congress for the purpose of internal improvement, the regulation of finance, or any other measure inconsistent with the rights of the States.

of the States. 3d. Believing that the platform adopted by the late Baltimore convention contains the democratic creed, they expect cordially to sustain the presen administration, trusting that the policy adopted by those who compose it will be regulated by the cardinal doctrines of the American democracy.

4th. They will advocate all such measures of in ternal improvement as promise by judicious prosecution to promote the interests of the people and diffuse the hearests of a system already enjeyed by diffuse the benefits of a system already enjoyed by diffuse the benefits of a system already enjeyed by portions of the State.

5th. The disposition of the public lands being a question of the most absorbing interest, we believe it should be at once met and settled. The unjust and unequal legislation of Congress, in relation to those lands, and the large and frequent appropriations made to the new States, indicate a final departure from the old and wise policy of appropriating the proceeds of their sales to the payment of the public debt, and the expenses of the government. It has for some time ceased to be government. It has for some time ceased to be either a subject of hope or expectation that there will ever be a return to a policy which had so much to recommend it. Believing that this system of squandering and prodigality is not only to continue but to grow worse, we shall protes against it, and assert the right of the old States to their equitable share of the lands which remain The power "to dispose of the public lands being explicitly declared in the Constitution, the exerexplicitly declared in the Constitution, the exercise of that power is a question of policy, both as to the time and the mode." Believing, as we do, that it has become the settled policy of Congress to squander the public lands, we adopt the patriotic language of Mr. Dobbin, and say that "all of North Carolina's sons, both whigs and democrats, should protest, and demand North Carolina's share of the public domain."

6th. Approxima of the sentiments of the inauguration.

6th. Approving of the sentiments of the inaugu-ral of the President, we shall oppose the acquisi-tion of Cuba or any other foreign territory, unless such acquisition be in accordance with existing treaties, and entirely consistent with the national

HENRYS INVIGORATING CORDIAL,

PURELY Vegetable in its composition. This invaluable Cordial is extracted from Herbs and Roots, which have been found after years of experience, by the most skillful physicians, to be possessed of qualities the most beneficial in the diseases for which it is recommended; and hence, whilst it is presented to the public as an efficacious remedy, it is also known to be of that character on which reliance may be placed as to its safety. In cases of Impotency, Hæmorrhages, Disordered Sterility, Menstruation, or Suppression of the Menses, Fluor Albus or Whites, or for Debility arising from any cause, such as weakness from sickness, where the patient has been confined to bed for some time, for females after confinement, abortion or miscarriage, this NVIGORATING CORDIAL, after confinement, abortion or miscarriage, this cordial cannot be excelled in its salutary effects or in loss of muscular energy, irritability, physical prostration, seminal weakness, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, sluggishness, decay of the procreative functions, nervousness, &c., where a rouc medicine is required, it will be found equal

To Females.—Henry's Invigorating Cordial is one of the most invaluable medicines in the man complaints to which females are subject. It as sists nature to brace the whole system, check ex cesses, and creates renewed health and happiness Less suffering, disease, and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to, are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom and to vitor.
